BIO (Long)

French DJ & Producer from Asian and Slav roots, Bakean discovered electronic music and synthesis sound as a child. He quickly started to compose and perform. With a versatile music background education, he graduated from Paris & Versailles Conservatory of Music and became a studio- recording artist for EMI and a classical percussionist in the French Air Force Brass Band, which plays for French President. With various orchestras, he has performed in prestigious venues like Chatelet Theater, Palais des Congres, Mogador Theater in Paris, Budapest Opera, Kremlin in Moscow.

Between 2006 & 2011, alongside the music production, his dedication and vision as co-founder and artistic director of multi awarded club LOGO Shanghai, a gathering place for many of Shanghai's creative talents and reknown international artists on tour in Asia, have helped earn the venue the Reader's Choice award for Best Live Music venue (2008 and 2009) as well best after hours and live music club awards (2009). He contributed to develop Shanghai and Asian music scene by producing events and local artists. Currently living in Paris, he is producing original soundtracks for fashion shows, TV and Luxury brands events besides touring for clubs and private events.
